In the Affairs of Port Arthur

ALL SORTS OF RUMORS IN ST. PETERSBURG

Japanese Army Has Driven the Russians North.

MIKADO'S MEN TAKE SIU YEN

And Push on Towards Liao Yang—Military Schools—Will McCormick Leave St. Petersburg?

Paris, June 11.—The Petit Journal has a report this morning that Port Arthur has fallen and that the Russian fleet has put to sea. The report lacks confirmation of any kind.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—There is a feeling in all circles that a crisis in the affairs of Port Arthur is rapidly approaching and in several quarters the most pessimistic feeling as to the outcome is expressed. Many persons spent the night in the churches on their knees praying for success for Russian arms.

All sorts of rumors are current and official advices are frequent, but none of the latter are of such a nature that the officials care to make them public.

JAPS TAKE SIU YEN.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The Japanese have taken Siu Yen, driving out the Russians. The enemy appears to be advancing on Hsi Cheng.

JAPS PUSH TOWARDS LIAO YANG.

Fusan, Korea, June 11.—The first Japanese army has recently been engaged in most important operations. For two days past four columns have been reconnoitering the roads toward Liao Yang, Hsi Cheng, Saimatsza and Siu Yen and have occupied towns on those roads, dislodging the Russians, numbering several hundred, from each, after sharp fighting. The Japanese casualties were 65 men killed or wounded.

MILITARY SCHOOLS.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—The Novoe Vremya has a telegram from Peking announcing that Japan has agreed to the establishment of special military schools in the island kingdom for the instruction of young Chinese. Three hundred and forty thousand taels have been appropriated by China for the purpose. China will pay the instructors, who will be Japanese. The schools will be under the supervision of the Chinese minister and a special inspector.

WILL MCCORMICK LEAVE?

St. Petersburg, June 11.—It is generally believed here that American Ambassador McCormick will ask for a leave of absence until the anti-American feeling in Russia has died out.

LIFE MAN

Didn't Know What to Do When He Left the Prison, So Hunter Decided to Return.

Columbus, O., June 11.—Samuel Hunter, the Athens county murderer, who walked away from the penitentiary early in the week has been returned to the institution by the marshal of Plain City, Madison county. Hunter is serving a life sentence. He says he did not care to escape, and after he got away he did not know what to do with himself. He concluded that he would return. Hunter was a "trustee" in the restaurant. He says he "got mad" at a superior who ordered him to do some work, threw down his things and left.

Vote to Strike.

Paris, June 11.—Five thousand bakers met at the Labor Exchange today and voted a general strike to be inaugurated on June 18.

EARL GRAY

Will Succeed Earl of Minto as Governor General of Canada, It Is Announced.

London, June 11.—(Bulletin.)—It is announced today that Earl Grey, lord lieutenant of Northumberland, will succeed the Earl of Minto as governor general of Canada.

Albert Henry George Grey has borne the title of Earl of Northumberland for eight years. He is fifty-three years old. He is well known because of his expeditions in South Africa. He has been director of the British South African company for the past six years.

NOT GUILTY

Was the Artist who Killed Himself and Family After the Police Had Falsely Accused Him.

Hamburg, June 11.—It is now proved beyond all doubt that the painter, Buseke, who committed suicide after killing his wife and mother, as well as his two children, was absolutely innocent of the counterfeiting with which he had been charged. Immediately after the discovery of the bodies the true criminal was arrested and has now confessed.

The funeral of the five victims took place today, and carloads of flowers are arriving from friends and admirers of the painter from all parts of Germany.

Serious charges are made against the police authorities, who are accused of trying to intimidate Buseke to force a confession from him, and of stating to him that the circumstantial evidence against him was so strong that he would never succeed in clearing his name of suspicion, even should he escape conviction.

MILLIONS

Extorted by the Police in a Manner That the Supreme Justice Condemns and Enjoins.

New York, June 11.—In granting a permanent injunction restraining a police captain from stationing an officer in a cafe near Washington Market for the ostensible purpose of preventing gambling on the premises, Justice Gaynor, of the supreme court, has handed down a decision denouncing what he calls oppression by the police.

After finding that the captain had absolutely no grounds for suspecting that gambling existed on the premises, but had persisted in stationing men on the premises to drive away customers, without even having consulted a magistrate, Justice Gaynor continued:

"It is by methods such as these that millions of dollars have been extorted annually in the city of New York, and police officials have been able to retire, one after another, with great wealth.

"His (the captain's) acts clearly constitute the crime of oppression, and it is fortunate that they have not provoked violence and even bloodshed, for the plaintiff has the right to resist them with all the force necessary.

"We read of such official conduct in Europe and profess to be astonished over it, but we have had more of it in the city of New York for the last 25 years, and especially during the last eight or nine years, than there has been in any other place in the civilized world.

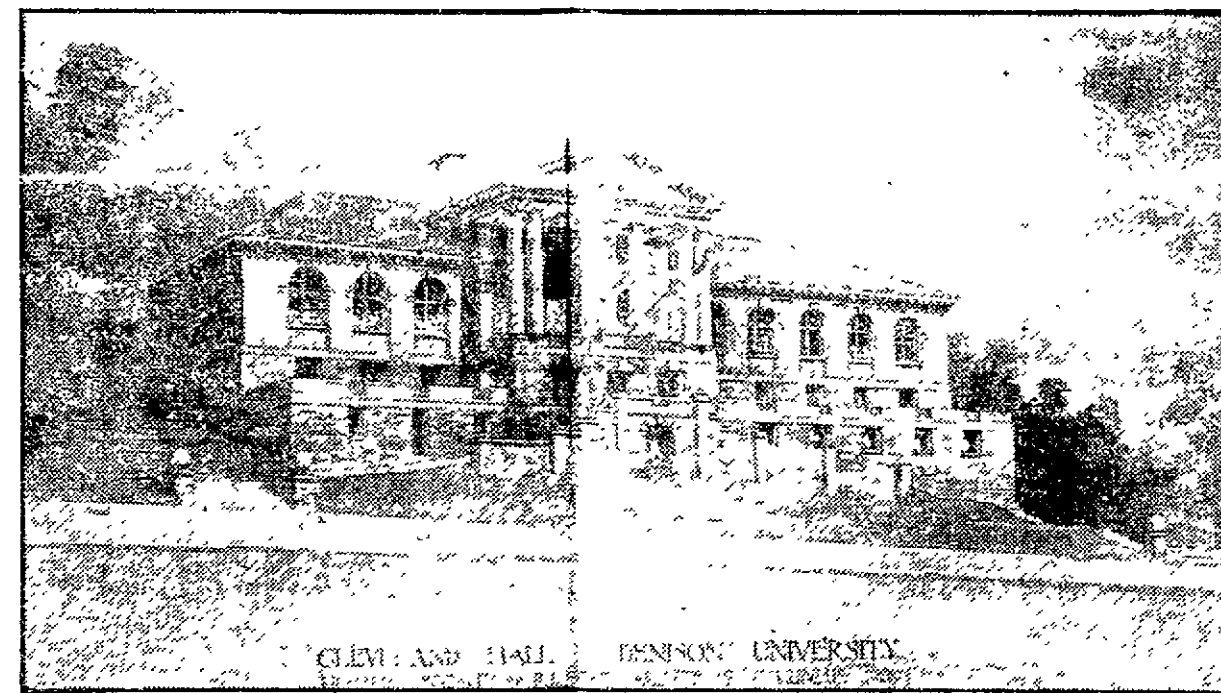

"Such police lawlessness is far more dangerous than all the gambling and other vices combined. It brings in its train all of the vices, and debases government and society. The law can be effectually and permanently enforced only in a lawful, orderly and uniform manner."

DOWIE IN LONDON

London, June 11.—Alex. Dowie, the self-appointed prophet Eliab III., arrived in London from Holland at 9:30 this morning. His son and a few Zionites met him at the depot and escorted him to the railway hotel where rooms had been engaged.

The "President's March," composed by Fyles in honor of President Washington in 1788, and to which the words of "Hail Columbia" were set in 1795, was probably the most popular patriotic air about 1800.

DENISON'S GYMNASIUM CORNERSTONE OF WHICH WAS LAID JUNE 8.

Granville, O., June 11.—The trustees and friends of Denison university are all elated over the bright prospects in store for Ohio's principal university. The subscriptions which have been added to the property of Denison University during the past year will amount to nearly $100,000. Plans have been made for additional buildings, which, when completed, will have the effect of largely increasing the number of students. Among the buildings to be constructed is a gymnasium and Y M C A. building. Work on this building has already begun. The foundation has been put in and work on the walls is progressing very rapidly. The cornerstone of the building was laid with imposing ceremonies on Wednesday, June 8. Among the contributors to the fund for this building were Mr. T. A. Sherwin and Mr. Ambrose Swasey of Cleveland, who each contributed

$5,000. The new building is being erected on the slope of the hill, just south of Doane Academy, and near the level of the village. It is on the direct route between the dormitories and the village, easily accessible from either, and will constitute the center of student life. The building, exclusive of the furnishings, will cost $47,000, and will be a great advantage to the architectural beauty of the classic village of Granville.

DEPORTATION

OF MINERS BY THE WHOLESALE CONTINUES.

Four Thousand Men Will Be Sent Away—Troops and Citizens' Alliance Continue the Raids.

La Junta, Colo., June 11.—The "special" bearing troops and over one hundred deported miners out of the state of Colorado, arrived here this morning. It stopped long enough to change engines. A crowd of citizens gathered at the depot but no demonstration was made.

Cripple Creek, Colo., June 11.—Wholesale deportations of the strikers continued today. About 200 men were sent out of this place and the adjacent camps. The troops and Citizens' Alliance continue the raids and new prisoners are brought in as fast as others are deported. General Bell doubled his precautions last night because of the bitter feeling aroused by the coroner's verdict in the dynamite case. This verdict charges that "This crime and similar crimes were designed and executed as a result of a conspiracy incited by certain officers of that order."

General Bell says that about four thousand men will be deported before martial law closes. The coroner's jury is continuing the inquest behind closed doors.

Topeka, Kansas, June 11.—Coolidge, Kas., to which town General Bell consigned the union miners of Cripple Creek, is a place having nominally about two hundred inhabitants. It is just inside the state line. It has no industry excepting cattle grazing. The harvest fields in which the Colorado General expected exiles to earn money are about two hundred miles east.

Denver, Colo., June 11.—"I believe in stamping out this set of dynamiters and I intend it shall be done. The Supreme court has granted me the power which policemen and sheriff possess, and I am exercising that power."

Governor James H. Peabody issued a quasi-deict to his critics when he made the foregoing statement. He was asked if he contemplated the deportation of union men from the Cripple Creek district by deputies and military and in making a vigorous affirmative answer used the language quoted.

"And to carry out your plans you have decreed martial law, have you not?" queried a press representative. Governor Peabody replied:

"I have not declared martial law in any community in Colorado. I have only declared certain communities to be in a state of insurrection and rebellion. The newspapers have used the term 'martial law' in describing my proclamation and the error rests there.

"When a community is under martial law a provost guard is appointed and all prisoners are given military trial under this guard. Nothing of the kind has ever been attempted in Colorado. I have simply arrested men and held them until I deemed it proper and wise to turn them over to the civil authorities for trial."

BROTHER

Of Pres. McKinley Found Dead in a Chair This Morning.

McKeesport, Pa., June 11.—Abner McKinley died at 5 o'clock this morning at his old home. He was found dead in a chair. He had been ill for many months with Bright's disease.

Abner McKinley was the only brother of the late President McKinley. He was a lawyer by profession and practiced in New York since 1897, his office being located at No. 52 Broadway. He was born in Canton, Ohio, and practiced law in that city previous to coming to New York. He was a member of the Union League and Lawyers Club of New York.

DANGEROUS

INSANITY IS DEVELOPED BY A KENTUCKY MAN.

First Tried to Kill His Four Children, Then Almost Drowned Wife in a Creek.

Owingsville, Ky., June 11.—Clem Hutton, living near here, who recently returned from the insane asylum, has again developed dangerous insanity. After repeated attempts to kill his four children they were taken from him. Awakening from sleep Friday afternoon he told his wife, who was alone with him, that he had been to hell and had received imperative orders from Jesus, the devil and George O. Barnes to administer truce baptism to everybody he saw and to begin with his wife. Forebodingly taking her to a deep hole in Mill creek, near his home, he proceeded to baptize her. He had put her under water the third time when he was toppled by some fishermen. His wife was unconscious when rescued and in a serious condition. He said it was his intention to drown her. Hutton is a Mormon elder.

Ironton, O., June 11.—After a three days' session the grand jury to investigate the riot cases in Hanging Rock was discharged Friday evening without making a report. It is understood that the jury will report later.

WIRELESS

MESSAGES RECEIVED BY THE CUNARD LINER

For Benefit of Passengers All Way Across the Ocean—Marconi Was on Board the Vessel.

New York, June 11.—Passengers on board the Cunard liner Campania, which arrived this morning from Liverpool, were enabled to read the news bulletins of the world's events each day at breakfast on the voyage through the agency of the Marconi wireless telegraph. Signor Marconi was a passenger on the Campania and directed the operation of his invention. Several newspaper representatives were on board to watch the experiments. The Campania had not been long on the journey on Saturday evening when news was received from the Seaford station and later in the evening from Poldhu, Cornwall. This station was kept in touch with 2,300 miles distant on Friday, June 10. Communication was established with Cape Breton, 2,600 miles distant, on Tuesday at 2 a. m. and kept up thereafter. On Wednesday, June 8, Cape Cod station distant 1,900 miles, was picked up by Cape Breton and Poldhu being in connection also. On the 9th, news bulletins were received from Poldhu, England, until the morning. On the 10th at 3 p. m. Nanucket was in communication with Cape Breton and Cape Cod furnished news items. In addition to the shore stations, communication was established with the Etna, Aurania and Lucania, and news items were exchanged. A number of private messages were sent at intervals.

The Milk Problem.

Chicago, June 11.—"After the stork comes, 'try a goat.'" may be the next congressional billiard motto to excite the curiosity of Chicagoans. The plan is to displace the milkman with goats of the "Nanny" persuasion. St. Louis capitalists are interested in the venture. To relieve Chicago's curiosity of milk and to improve the quality of food to infants, they propose to establish a number of distributing stations in Chicago from which the goats themselves will be sent out whenever an order for fresh milk is received.

JEFFRIES AND MONROE.

San Francisco, June 11.—News from Harbin Springs says Jeffries has taken off fully thirty pounds in ten days by hard training and running on the road. The total admissions for the month of May were 1,061,391, not including those of the opening day. The passes recorded at the gates for May numbered 479,000, or an average of 17,633 and a fraction per day.

"GOD BLESS YOU"

Wrote the Mother to the Clerk When She Requested a Marriage License For Her Dying Daughter.

Anderson, Ind., June 11.—Miss Lulu M. Ray, of Indianapolis, made two quick trips between this city and Indianapolis yesterday and finally returned home with a license for the marriage of her sister, Miss Mabel L. Ray, of Indianapolis, and John McCoy, of Zanesville, O.

When Miss Lulu Ray first asked for the license she did not have the written consent of her mother, and she hastened back to Indianapolis to get it. Christina Ifons, mother of the Misses Ray, sent a note consenting to the license and added for the clerk of court: "May God bless and reward you for this kindness to me and my daughter."

It was explained that the license was asked for here because McCoy recently lived here and also that the wedding was hastened by the critical illness of Miss Mabel Ray, who feared she might die before she was married. McCoy was due at Indianapolis last night for the wedding. He is a railroad employee.

GOT A CHECK

Settling Matter Just Before Case Was to Be Tried—Revelations Would Have Been Interesting.

New York, June 11.—Chas. H. Kavanaugh, a manufacturer of waterford, N. Y., who bought $50,000 of the bonds of the old United States Ship Building company, 200 shares of the preferred stock and 500 shares of common stock, and who brought suit to recover his losses, has received a check for $75,000, which is said to be more than represented the money invested. The suit was to have been tried in Saratoga on June 22. Had the suit been allowed to go to trial the revelations resulting would have been, it is said, even more startling than those made at the Luncheon investigation.

JEFF LAID UP

Harbin Springs, Cal., June 11.—Jas. J. Jeffries is today in bed with a swollen left knee and no one will tell the extent of the injury. His camp mates express the opinion that he will be able to resume his work tomorrow, but all are anxious over his condition, as a postponement of the fight with Munroe is among the possibilities. The swelling appeared suddenly, and although it has been suggested that Jeff may have hurt his knee while kneeling down to drink from a creek, this is by no means certain.

OTSEGO OIL FIELD.

Coshocton, O., June 11.—John Kinner has struck oil again at Otsego. Tuesday the third well was shot and will be, it is thought, a ten-barrel producer. The well is located on the farm of G. T. Riley. ## FIASCO

Was the Blackmail Suit

MR. PLATT UNABLE TO GIVE DIRECT EVIDENCE

The Woman Was Dismissed at the Prosecutor's Request.

BUT IMMEDIATELY RE-ARRESTED

On Civil Action to Recover Large Sum—Platt's Memory Failed Him—The Crowd Hooted.

New York, June 11.—Mrs. Hannah Elias was discharged yesterday afternoon on motion of Assistant District Attorney Rand, acting for District Attorney Jerome, at the conclusion of the testimony of John R. Platt, the aged millionaire, who caused her arrest for extortion. Mr. Platt proved a disappointing witness. To questions bearing directly on the charges on which the woman's arrest had been made, he repeatedly said: "I don't know." His helplessness and his apparently unreliable memory surprised those who attended his examination. He did not remember whether he had given Mrs. Elias large sums of money during the last 10 years, as charged, and did not remember signing certain of the papers in connection with his charges against her. The ordeal was a trying one for the old man and his replies became scarcely audible toward the last. As soon as he had left the witness chair, Assistant District Attorney Rand said:

"Your honor, I think the parties to this miserable scandal ought to be allowed to stew in their own grease. There is no evidence before you that will possibly serve to hold this woman on a charge of extortion. I recommend that she be discharged."

The magistrate thereupon discharged the woman.

Immediately afterwards, Mrs. Elias was re-arrested on a writ of the civil suit originally brought against her by Mr. Platt to recover $665,000. She was released a few minutes later on $20,000 bail and was escorted by two detectives through the crowded corridors of the criminal court building to the street, where her carriage was waiting. Several thousand persons, among them hundreds of negroes, attracted by the case, thronged the building and stood crowded in the streets outside.

When Mr. Platt, feeble and trembling and apparently dazed, was helped out of the building, the crowd hooted and hissed.

The Medicine That Cures.

BRENO, OKLA., May 11, 1903.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes as a rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery. It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Columbus, O., June 11.—Harry P. Scott was here yesterday afternoon from Newark and was a caller at the Penitentiary. He had a talk with Harry J. Hoover but the nature or result of the interview is not known. The Scott case it is understood, will be taken to President Roosevelt shortly.

Mr. Scott, who has been working in Portland, Ind., for the Blodgett Construction company, returned to Newark last night. Unless favorable action is taken by the President in his case Mr. Scott will shortly appear at the penitentiary and begin his sentence which amounts to 10 months and 12 days imprisonment.

POLICE

ARREST TWO YOUNG MEN ON A BURGLARY CHARGE.

Articles in Their Possession Identified as Having Been Stolen Here Friday Night.

Chief Sheridan and Officers Zergiebel and Carroll made an important arrest Saturday afternoon about 1:45 o'clock. For some time numerous minor burglaries have been commanding the attention of the police. Chief Sheridan learned that Max McCann and Joe McNulty, two well-known characters, had been seen in the East End on the night the grocery store of C. J. Brown was burglarized. Chief Sheridan and Officers Zergiebel and Carroll went over to the West End this afternoon and succeeded in arresting the men, but only after they had put up a stiff fight, in which McCann pulled a gun. The men were taken to jail, where they were searched. One dollar and ten cents in nickels, three dollars in dimes and one dollar in quarters, a bunch of keys and revolvers were found on their persons. A soft hat and the bunch of keys were identified as having been stolen from the law office of Flory & Flory and C. W. Miller on Friday night.

Tired, Tired Tired. That one word tells the whole story. No rest. No comfort. All tired out. Fortunately, physicians know about Ayer's Sarsaparilla. They prescribe it for exhaustion, anemia.

The trusts know they will have a good friend in the Senate in the person of Philander C. Knox, who has been appointed to succeed the late Mr. Quay.

Governor Yates of Illinois is making a record for paying off old scores. All the appointees of his administration who failed to be loyal to him in the late contest are being fired as fast as the Governor can write his name to the necessary documents.

There is no "Cleveland wing" and "Pryan wing" of the Democratic party. Nine hundred and ninety-nine Democrats out of every thousand repudiate factionalism under either label and are going to St. Louis intent upon frowning it down. The platform and ticket will represent this Democratic mass, not either backbiting coterie of disruptionists.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Constitution when it shoots usually hits the nail squarely on the head, as it does in this instance.

JUDGE PARKER

RECEIVING THE SUPPORT OF MORE PARTY LEADERS.

Senators Gorman and Cockrell and Col. Guffey, of Pennsylvania, Unite on the Judge.

Washington, June 11.—The undercurrents of party sentiment are beginning to flow with increasing strength in the direction of Judge Parker. Three influential and powerful recruits have joined his standard within the past forty-eight hours. They are Senator Cockrell, of Missouri, who can have the endorsement of his own state; Senator Gorman of Maryland, who restrained his friends in the recent Maryland state convention from adopting a resolution of instruction for himself, and Colonel James M. Guffey, Democratic leader of the state of Pennsylvania. Both senators and the Pennsylvania leader agreed that the best thing they could do under the circumstances was to cast their fortunes individually and collectively, with Judge Parker.

The effect of their decision is to insure Judge Parker the support of Maryland and Pennsylvania in the St. Louis convention. An accession of eighty-four votes to the previous total of about 190 delegates who had already been instructed to support the New York jurist. Senator Cockrell has no doubt about his ability to persuade the Democrats of Missouri that every consideration of party harmony and success demands that they shall join hands with Judge Parker's friends.

He frankly acknowledged to Senator Gorman and Colonel Guffey that circumstances may require him to accept the endorsement of the forthcoming Missouri convention, but if that exigency arises he will be prepared to withdraw in favor of Judge Parker as soon after the St. Louis convention assemblies as such a step may be deemed prudent.

The decision of Senator Gorman and Colonel Guffey to throw the strength of their respective states to Judge Parker was partly the result of a conviction that no other course was open to them and partly to a desire to put an end to the absurd story that they were in alliance with Murphy, the Tammany boss, to defeat Parker. It is true that Murphy approached both of them with propositions to support Mayor McClellan, Judge Gray or any other candidate whom they might select for the purpose of destroying Parker. It was Murphy's misfortune, however, to be unable to convince either Senator Gorman or Colonel Guffey that he regarded his personal interests as paramount to those of the party at large.

His complaint was not against Judge Parker, but against former Senator Hill. He assumed that the nomination of Parker at St. Louis would be a death blow to his own political hopes and equally a source of great power and influence to Hill. He also assumed that because he was opposed to Parker for purely selfish reasons that Parker could not command the support in greater New York which a Democratic candidate for president will have to receive to assure his victory in the state.

Gorman and Guffey were not impressed by Murphy's arguments. Moreover, they received satisfactory assurances from many influential Tammany men that Murphy did not voice the sentiments of that organization.

After many conferences and much patient investigation they reached the inevitable conclusion that Murphy, owing to his obvious intellectual limitations, had found it impossible to let go of the Hearst boom which he undertook to promote by attempting to defeat Parker instructions in the late Albany convention.

They decided, therefore, to have nothing to do with Murphy and accept the decision of the Albany convention as final.

Senator Gorman and Colonel Guffey came to Washington to meet Senator Cockrell at the invitation of the Missourian. Senator Cockrell had already made up his mind about the desirability of supporting Judge Parker and wanted to convince Gorman and Guffey that they ought to do likewise. The senator was delighted to find that they agreed with him.

The addition of these three formidable leaders to Judge Parker's ranks will have an important bearing on his fortunes. It will mean the immediate support of Maryland's and Pennsylvania, and future support of Missouri, West Virginia, Ohio, Virginia and North and South Carolina.

NEW JERSEY FOR PARKER.
Seventeen Out of Twenty-Four Delegates Favor the New Yorker.

New York, June 11.—Eleven delegates out of the 24 elected by the New Jersey Democrats to go to the St. Louis convention met yesterday in Jersey City in response to an invitation of Robert Davis, of that place. Several others sent letters of regret. The delegates will start for St. Louis on July 2.

Mr. Davis said that former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., would be elected, without opposition, chairman of the delegation. He also said that when the New Jersey delegates held their caucus 17 out of the 24 would vote for Judge Parker.

When Democracy Will be Dead.

In reply to the repeated Republican assertion that the Democratic party is dead some unknown hickory Democrat resurrected and amended in the following verification the conditions under which, and the time when, Democracy will die:

When the lion eats grass like an ox,
And the fishworm swallows the whale;
When the termites knit woolen socks,
And the hare is outrun by the snail;
When serpents walk upright like men,
And doobies travel like frogs;
When the grasshopper feeds on the hen,
And feathers are found on hogs;
When Thomas cats swim in the air,
And elephants roost upon trees;
When insects in summer are rare,
And snuff never makes people sneeze;
When fish creep over dry land,
And mules on velocipedes ride;
When foxes lay eggs in the sand,
And women in drags take no pride;
When Durchein no longer drink beer,
And girls get to preaching on time;
When billy goats butt from the rear,
And treason no longer is crime;
When the humming bird brags like an ass,
And lumberjacks smells like cologne;
When plowshares are made out of glass,
And hearts of humans of steel;
When ideas grow on cabbage heads,
And wool on the hydraulic ram,
Then the Democratic party will be dead,
And this country not worth a d—.

CAMPAIGN

THAT THE DEMOCRATS PROPOSE TO CARRY OUT

In Ohio This Fall—Splendid Executive Committee That Has Been Chosen for the Work.

Columbus, June 10.—The partial organization of the state Democracy accomplished at the meeting of the state central committee on Thursday marks a stage of progress that is very gratifying to interested Democrats throughout the state. The meeting established the supremacy of the central committee in all matters relating to the party's welfare. This recognition was openly demanded and conceded by all present in such important matters as the election of an executive committee to manage the campaign and a sub-committee of three to prepare rules for the government of the organization in all the counties. The central committee therefore has a firmer hold on the interests of the party at the present time than has been the case in many years past. The election of Benjamin F. McKinney of Marietta as chairman of this committee places a strong man at the helm and a deserved honor was conferred upon his only real rival for the chairmanship, Frank Harper of Mt. Vernon, by making the latter vice chairman.

Individually considered the executive committee is one of the strongest that has ever represented the party in Ohio. Its members are John E. Diemer of Tiffin, James DeVine of Chillicothe, C. E. Peoples of Pomeroy, W. R. Burnett of Springfield, James Ross of Columbus, P. A. Ferry of Mt. Vernon, Judge R. S. Shields of Canton, Samuel G. Rodgers of Akron and Louis Selbach of Cleveland. The ability, intelligence and representative character of this committee guarantees that the managers of the coming campaign will have excellent advisors and that the plans and details of the coming great campaign will be skillfully and faithfully managed by those to whom they will be assigned.

While no definite arrangements have been made it is understood that Chairman Harvey C. Garber of the executive committee will open state headquarters in this city immediately following the St. Louis convention. Chairman Garber is known to be in favor of an early opening of the campaign and its active prosecution up to election day. The state committee will have the assistance of the national committee in all matters. The best Democratic orators in Ohio, regardless of factions, will take the stump, and there will be an influx of oratorical talent from outside the state under the auspices of the national committee. The Democratic organization will enter the contest on the theory that Ohio can be carried for the ticket nominated at St. Louis and will adhere to this program throughout the campaign.

DENIES

THAT EITHER HAS PROPERTY BELONGING TO BLOOMER.

Mr. Charles E. Cherry and Daughter Answer the Citation to Appear in Probate Court.

The Cherry-Bloomer hearing was called before Judge Irvine Saturday afternoon and continued until 3 o'clock Monday morning.

The hearing of the testimony of Miss Daisy Cherry, who was cited to appear before the Probate court to tell what had become of certain assets of the estate of the late Bryant J. Bloomer, which she with her father, Charles H. Cherry, are accused of having appropriated and are holding from the widow, was begun Friday afternoon and continued Saturday morning.

Mr. Cherry testified that he had no property belonging to the Bloomer estate and Miss Cherry testified to the same effect.

Mr. Cherry said:

"Dr. Town was in the room where Bloomer was taken ill, with me. I saw Bloomer twice that day. Did not see Bloomer next day, nor before he was taken to the hospital. Did not see Bloomer have possession of a pocket-book on any occasion that I saw him before going to the hospital, nor did I have any conversation with Bloomer about his pocket-book or his money. Mr. Bloomer did not deliver to me in the Star Hotel a pocket-book containing a large amount of money. I did not come into possession of a pocket-book in Bloomer's room in the Star Hotel at any time previous to his removal to the hospital. I saw Bloomer after he was removed to the hospital. There was no one present on the first occasion; I passed his door which was open and he was asleep. I went back later in the day; my daughter was with me. We were not in the room of Mr. Bloomer that day. I did not receive from any source a pocket-book said to be Mr. Bloomer's at any time before his death. I do not know of any person having received from Mr. Bloomer, or from another for him, a pocket-book after he was taken sick. It is not a fact that since Bloomer's death, I have had in my possession a pocket-book which was formerly Mr. Bloomer's, containing a large sum of money. It is not a fact that there came into my possession money purporting to be money belonging to Mr. Bloomer, since his death. I was not present at the time of Mr. Bloomer's death. I did not get any money from Bloomer at any time."

Mr. Smythe here produced a memorandum book and asked witness if he had not received on a certain date the sum of $300. Witness said he had not. Continuing Mr. Cherry said: "I want it understood that I had no communication with Bloomer on the day of his death or the day preceding his death. I saw Mrs. Bloomer in the hospital on the day of her husband's death. I was in the waiting room. My daughter was also there. A woman named Miss Bond was also there. She went with my daughter and me from my home. "I went to the hospital on Monday because Mr. Bloomer was ill; my daughter and I had no papers connected with Mr. Bloomer, nor did we know of any effort being made to have Mr. Bloomer sign any paper. At the time of Mr. Bloomer's death I did not have in my possession any property belonging to him at the time he was taken sick. "There was a trunk or a box came up from down street in an express wagon and was left at our house, and we got a wagon and sent it over to Mrs. Bloomer. It was unloaded and put on the porch at our house but was not taken into the house. It was not opened while at our house. "I knew nothing about a tin box which Bloomer kept in the Home Building Association, nor about a box of books, or a box of tools belonging to Mr. Bloomer. I know nothing about a Morris chair; never saw one at our house. I know nothing about any notes belonging to Bloomer at the time of his death, nor a binocular."

By Mr. Kibler:

"It was after Bloomer's death that the box came to our house."

MISS DAISY CHERRY.

Miss Daisy Cherry was called and testified as follows: "I knew Bryant J. Bloomer since about 1882. I saw Mr. Bloomer about two months before he was taken ill, and not after that time. I saw him at the Star Hotel, Columbus, on Friday before the Monday when he died. Never saw him there before. Miss Anna Bond and Mr. Will Given were present at the time. It was about 5 p. m. I stayed about thirty minutes, went away and returned in an hour and a half."

Miss Cherry was recalled at 9:30 Saturday morning and testified as follows:

"It is not a fact that a carpet and material taken from the Bloomer home were made into rugs, and used at our home. I know nothing about what became of a marble shelf formerly in the Bloomer home. I never had this shelf in my possession or under my control; I did not sell it. I never told Mrs. Bloomer that I had sold it. I delivered to Mr. Kibler memoranda and some promissory notes the day after Mr. Bloomer's death. I was not indebted to Mr. Bloomer at the time of his death; he never furnished me money. I had procured money from him, on one occasion borrowed $25, but nothing else that I recall. Mr. Bloomer gave me the $25 in cash. He never gave me money to buy a horse or horses. I have owned three horses, a pair of bays and a saddle mare; they were all purchased since I became acquainted with Mr. Bloomer. The saddle mare was purchased from McCullom of Columbus for $200. Bloomer did not purchase the animal nor furnish the money to do so. One bay was purchased in Maysville, Ky., the other in McConnelsville, O. Mr. Bloomer did not purchase them or either of them. The agents' name was Ben Points, to whom the draft was made payable, for $55 which purchased the Maysville horse. The McConnelsville horse cost $100.

I borrowed $300 from Bloomer. It was loaned for 30 days to make a payment on a piece of property I purchased until such time as I could collect a note due me from a party in Coshocton county. I bought the property from Virginia Woolard; it is situated in Licking county; the borrowed money may have been part of the initial payment on this property; Mr. Bloomer made a check for the $300, drawn on a bank which I do not remember; I don't remember if I cashed the check or not; probably I did; I did not owe this money to Bloomer when he died. I had paid it back, in the course of a month or two, in cash at my home. I had a bank account at that time, but did not give a check because I happened to have the cash, a man having paid a note owed to me. His name was Lorenz and he was security for his daughter, who really owed me the money. Her name was Mrs. Fritz. I don't know where she now lives. She owed me $850 for a millinery business which I sold to her. I know of a Morris chair said to have belonged to Mr. Bloomer; it never was at my home; I said once to Mr. Rawlings: "Mr. Bloomer said when you are ready send the Morris chair to Mr. Cherry; I want him to have it." I have seen a binocular at our home. It was given to me as I intended going to the Paris Exposition. Mr. Bloomer did not give the glass to me, nor did it come from him or from his home; I never asked for or received a satchel belonging to Bloomer at the hospital in Columbus. My reason for going to see him was because he was ill and needed his friends; I had no deed or other paper with me at the time, nor at the time of subsequent visits.

KONRAD NIES
Former Newark Resident Honored at the National Capital—Tendered a Reception Recently.
On May 14, in the National Rifles' Armory Hall, an entertainment and reception was tendered Mr. Konrad Nies, of St. Louis, by the prominent German-American citizens of the city. Mr. Nies is regarded as the foremost of the German-American lyric poets. At this reception Mr. Nies recited a number of his own poems, and after the banquet the prize poem was read both in German and English. The poem, "The Vengeance of the Forest," won the first prize at the contest which closed April 21 at the "Flower Plays," or poetical contest at Baltimore. Mr. Nies' poem was chosen from nearly three hundred, all by the best poets from all parts of the United States. At this same contest he also won several other prizes.
The "Flower Play" festivals in the United States are of recent origin, but in Germany, Italy, Spain and France they are of ancient date. In Germany in the city of Mayence, on the Rhine, the festival dates to the fourteenth century, and each year on the first of May the victorious poets receive the title of "Doctor of the Gay Science," and a golden violet and various flowers of silver. Mr. Nies was for some years previous to 1894, professor of German in the Newark High school, and is still held in affectionate esteem by his many friends in this city.

The Vengeance of the Forests.
BY KONRAD NIES.
Translated by William F. Feyers.
At night, when the sun sets at sea and strand,
And the clouds by the storm are sweeping,
A thunderous roar sweeps fast through the land,
The outlawed justice weeping.
From the Cuckoo's nest, where the oak tree blows;
From Maryland's mineral fountains;
From the stars, where the Minnesota flows;
From the Texas valleys and mountains,
It breaks forth from the fire and pine, its mate;
From Rocky mountains, deep roaring;
From the giant redwood, the Golden Gate,
From Florida's palm groves, creaking,
From east and west, from south and north,
Through fields and caves and rocks and low,
It swells in thundering storm accord:
Revenge the forest, ye Powers!
In growing and withering a thousand year,
By the red and sea, ye Powers heap;
We offer him shelter and weapons dear
And love in reward we were reaping;
We were growing in peace, we were sprouting;
The country we sheltered and shielded.
Then crossing the seas, pale faces were seen,
And ties of our friendship yielded.
They gave us their country, their hearts and their home,
The pale face, the coward, succeeding
In ravaging greedy, where the Indians roam
Our homelands, our marrow is bleeding!
We guards of the highlands and watchmen of seas,
Smash olden times benefit spending;
On bounding of gold they are bending
Before we are slaughtered and forfeit our blood.
Subvert to man's greed, and in falling—
Near storm and, and earthquake, and fire, and flood,
All favors for revenge we are calling!
Our loving companions from eternity's time,
The heavens have lent you the weapons.
So grant us now vengeance, revenge ye this crime!
The worst to the greedy let happen!
Whatever is built from our body and crown,
The walls of the city and spire,
Tear it down, then O Storm, tear it down,
Tear it down!
Consume it in flames, then O Fire!
The bridge of the river, the ship on the sea
Their built, and our death was demanded,
Consume them, O Flood, till bulwark and tree,
Destroyed, lay demolished and stranded!
Oh, bury this Earth, then, thou mine and the shaft,
Contained in our bosom's great recess,
Up, up to the fight ye comrades of the craft
Till the works of the men dash to pieces!
Thus pealing and sounding in chorus of hate,
Through cliffs and through mountains resounding,
Inland from the Hudson to the Golden Gate,
The outlawed cry, wrathful, astounding,
And daily and hourly it clutched the blood,
When men in disasters defeated,
And stormwind, and Earth, and Fire, and Flood,
The Powers' revenge have completed.

Morgantown, W. Va., June 11.—John Purinton, formerly of Granville, O., son of President D. B. Purinton, president of the university, was painfully injured while standing behind the home plate watching a sub-pitcher practicing for the second team. Some one called to Purinton and he turned just as the pitcher essayed a drop. The catcher failed to get his hands on the ball and it struck Purinton with terrible force. Purinton stood for an instant and then toppled over unconscious. The players carried him to the bench, where he slowly revived. In falling the young man struck his head and ear against the backstop, inflicting another painful wound. The young man is now better, but it will be several days before he fully recovers.

LODGE NEWS

Masonic.
The regular meeting of Acme Lodge, No. 554, F. and A. M., was held on Thursday night, when there was a good attendance of the members. Considerable business of importance was transacted and the Fellowship degree was conferred on four candidates.

At a stated convocation of Warren Chapter, No. 6, R. A. M., held on Monday night, five applicants for membership were elected and three petitions were received.

Odd Fellows.

There are many poor souls in this world who go plodding along through life bowed down to such an extent with cares and adversity that their backs resemble a rainbow. They are "in the hole," and they know it. They are too honest to steal and too proud to make their condition known to their friends. They feel that they would rather eke out a miserable existence than to run the risk of a heart stab that the little word "no" would give them from a supposed friend whom they might call upon to assist them. Day after day they go looking for the silver lining in the cloud which never comes. That happy, joyous smile which they once wore has passed away from their faces and friends, and the "darkest hour before day" theory has been exploded. They feel that they are a misery to themselves and a burden to everybody that knows them. Day after day they perform their usual vocations and bemoan their unhappy condition. The cause of this is best known to themselves, and acting upon the principle that they had better endure the ills they have than to fly to others that they know not of, they bear their own suffering rather than inflict their friends with their troubles. At such a time as this, when we see our brother cast down and broken in spirit, when we see him tottering under the weight of years and trembling under the cross of misfortune, it is meet and proper that we should quickly come to his relief, whisper good counsel in his ear and admonish him to cheer up. Give him to know that we are no fair weather friends. Together we stand in prosperity, and in adversity we will not forsake him. And though his life may be tossed by the troubled sea, give him to understand that within the bosom of his friends he has a safe harbor, where he can replenish his energy and exchange his burden for love and good cheer. Assist your brother in time of need.—Triple Link.

TELEGRAM

FROM NEWARK TO WORLD'S FAIR POLICEMAN.

In Which Name of Wm. Stinger Appears, Has Some Mystery About It—Here Is the Dispatch.

The following dispatch from St. Louis appeared in Saturday morning's Cincinnati Enquirer:

"John Stinger, a member of the World's Fair police force, today received a telegram from his brother, William Stinger, in Newark, O., announcing a bequest of $1,000,000.

"Officer Stinger is a beneficiary under the bequest, the telegram stated, but to what extent he does not know.

"Since the arrival of the telegram Stinger has been attracting more attention than his superior officers. This evening he received several dinner invitations from fellow 'cops' desirous of assisting him to celebrate the good news and possibly help him spend some of the money when it arrives."

Mr. William Stinger, a well-known resident of this city, and the father of Mr. J. E. Stinger, who is interested in the gold discovery southeast of this city, with Mr. George W. Slatter, of Columbus, was seen in regard to the above item. Mr. Stinger was unable to throw any light on the matter, except to say that he has a son, William, who is a member of the World's Fair police force, and that his son, J. E., and Mr. Slatter, who had started for Arizona to purchase mining machinery, had telegraphed to him at St. Louis to meet them upon their arrival in that city. Mr. Stinger said that he has a son, John Stinger, who resides at Chicago Junction. Mr. Stinger is of the opinion that a big mistake has been made somewhere.

G. W. LAYTON

Denies That He Was Unusually Severe
in Correcting Daughter at Home
Thursday Night.

George W. Layton, of McKinley avenue, called at The Advocate office Saturday morning in company with his daughter, Miss Maggie Layton, of Conesville, to deny the assertions made by Mr. Layton's son, published in this paper Friday in reference to the family trouble at the Layton home the previous evening.

Mr. Layton says that he is the father of eight children and has had his hands full caring for them. He is a laborer employed at the Everett glass factory and other places about town.

Mr. Layton says that there was no serious trouble at his house Thursday night that he had found it necessary to correct his daughter, Sarah, aged 16, but that no violence was used. He said that he frequently found it necessary to be severe, but in no case has he been unusually severe or cruel.

Mr. Layton says that he went to Conesville Friday to have his daughter Maggie to return home to help him manage the family. Miss Maggie, the older daughter, corroborates the statement made by the father.

Regarding the presence of a widow in the house, Miss Layton says that she was there at the request of Mr. Layton and the older children to help take care of the baby and the younger children.

After Mr. Layton was at the office, his son, Robert, was interviewed and he said that the story of his father's cruelty as printed Friday was correct except in one detail. Where the article stated that the elder Layton had
